SNIVELY AT HOME.

Some days ago The Rep referred to E. A. Snively, the democratic candidate for clerk of the supreme court against J. F. Finn, as a kidglove aristocrat. Here is what a paper from his home, The Macoupin Enquirer, has to say of him:

Mr. Snively was compelled, at the early age of fifteen years, to earn his own living and he apprenticed himself in a printing office and industriously worked himself through all the various departments. Knowing so well what it is to work so hard, his sympathies have naturally all been with the laboring people whether in the shop, mine or on the farm. The old files of the Enquirer, which he has shown that he is the strongest articles and sturdiest blows were in defense of the laboring classes. He spent one session in the legislature as a correspondent and for years has been a careful student of the methods by which legislation is enacted and prohibited, and understands the subject as fully as any man in the state. He will speak right out without any reserve and he will call things by their right names. That he will influence in the passage of every measure that has passed either branch of the legislature since 1871 in the interest of the people, and has mourned with them the defeat of legislation which was intended for the masses.

Gentlemen, that reads more like a four ounce boxing glove in the hands of a good man in a fight to a finish, than like a kid glove on the delicate hand of a dandy.

THE REP has a half column about the supremacy of the Southern democracy in the party, another partisan resume of the history of the last 40 years, a great round period about the loyal lives that were lost to beat down democratic dogmas of long ago, a whoop about the "American Bastille," and talk of Confederate armies.

Almaeas!
Did Mr. Perli vote for Zora W. Harris, the soldier candidate for township collector last spring, against his democratic opponent, Joseph S. Hewes? No.—Rep.
Did the republican party with its majority in Decatur township vote for him? Who's got the office?

THE REP wants us to quote from the McKinley bill about the tariff on musical instruments when it says nothing about them. We can quote the figures on manufactured iron and steel, if that will do. That is what a piano means when it strikes a custom house nowadays.

THE republican steering committee of Macon county was thought, yesterday, to be out with a campaign subscription paper. How much was gathered in? It is the idea now to save the country by tampering the footers with large stacks of silver dollars.

How do you know that E. S. Wilson has railroad passes in his pocket? You were asked once before to name the railroads. Retraction is a poor answer, even in politics.

THE F. M. B. A. at Springfield reelected E. S. Wilson a member of the Executive committee.

HOW THEY TALK.

Scene—The street. Two soldiers meet. Hello, comrade, how are you? How is things in Friends Creek?

On, about the same old story, peace and plenty.

How is politics; the boys are solid for the republican ticket as usual, ain't they?

Well, yes, the most of the boys are republicans, as you know, but I am afraid there will be some scratching.

What! Why? What is the matter—haven't we got good men on the ticket?

Well, yes, some good men, but the boys don't need all as you fellows have fixed it.

What is the matter with Rowell, ain't he all right?

Oh, yes; we are all going to vote for Rowell. We think he makes very well; he don't seem to know any but McLean county men, but then he will do, we think, better than the Scott the democrats have up.

And, of course, one of them have to be elected. Yes, we will all vote for Rowell and the full state ticket.

Then the trouble is with the county ticket?

Yes, the county and legislative ticket don't just suit.

Well, what is the matter with our candidate for county judge?

Well, nothing, but who is he?

Why, he's the son of a farmer, a good lawyer and good good man.

Well, I believe the most of the boys will vote for him, but he is the best timber you had? We expect you fellows who live in Decatur to fix up the ticket for us to vote, as you always have, but some of the boys think you might have picked out an older and better known man. And it is reported he was one of Grover's appointees; and for a straight rep, that looks bad. But his explanation is satisfactory and we will most of us vote for him, although some of the old horse hoes that saved the country here at home while we were at the front, will vote for Nelson, as they always have; while all right in them, although we supported Joe Kay eight years ago for treasurer it was awful, and the same old stagers haven't forgiven us yet. But we shall support Harnsberger, although we don't expect to elect him.

Well, what about Hardy?

I haven't heard an objection to him; we will vote for him, although we would sooner vote for a soldier, but presume you could not find one that wanted it.

Well, Mahannah was a soldier, you will all support Capt. Harvey, or course?

Yes, the most of us. But there are some hard stories about his being wrong when he was collector of Decatur township; something about his having some money that should be in the town treasury. But while we know there were bunnies in the army and even you and I sometimes took things, cramped them as we called it, and Harvey might have done the same down South. We can't believe he would do it at home. And we are satisfied it is a democratic lie, and expect he will nail it; as we find the republican papers nail a democratic lie or two in every issue.

Well how is it with Moffatt?

Well you will find a good many of the boys will vote for Paul the soldier. Doc is all right but there are some d—fools among them that feel like standing by those that stood by us. Nothing against Doc, but you had a chance to put Cochrane, a soldier, on the ticket. He was also a farmer, and us old hoppers that think he would have represented us, and every one of us would have voted for him.

What have you against Tom Evans, if anything?

Oh, we shall all vote for Tom, although he has hardly known us since he was elected four years ago and wanted our vote. But he has been very friendly of late and knows the most of us now. But we shall all vote for him, as he was a soldier, and averages very well.

Well you can all vote for Milikin, as there is no soldier against him, and he has always been a soldier's friend.

Well, yes, he has always been the soldier's friend, and we are sure he will be a candidate for treasurer he was a friend!

He knew it would hurt Durfee's business prospects if he was elected, so spent his money and worked hard to defeat him. All for Durfee's good, although Durfee and us fellows that were for him couldn't see it that way at the time. But then Jim has always been liberal with his money. If us boys want a reunion Jim always comes down liberally. Or if we go to him for chaff, he never fails us. And then four years ago when we fellows run Dick Steele for treasurer Jim and his back did him no harm, but he was the convention, but we were too strong for him, were better organized and got Dick nominated. Then Jim knowing that office was bad for a soldier to have, (it is said) brought out Charles Laux, a democrat, and got him nominated by the democrats. Now that may be a mistake. But he worked and spent his money to elect Laux. I know he lectured for him as he wanted me to vote against Steele, putting it on the ground of a personal favor to him, Jim, as he had frequently favored me in many matters, and thought I should favor him, as I could not recollect the time he had favored me that I had not paid regular bar rates for the accommodation, I and the rest of the boys voted for Dick, and he got there, although Jim knew it would be the worst thing in the world for him. And then when Durfee took a fool idea that he would like to be circuit clerk, some of you boys, I believe, put his announcement in the papers. Jim knew what was best for him, and used his influence and other arguments and beat him. But that is all right. I think myself that Durfee was presumptuous.

Hedate Mc been there for 21 years, and was, and is, settled to it as long as he lives, and isn't Henry and Joe both well qualified to take it? I must say that I, for one, did not support Durfee for that. The argument that Jim and Orville used convinced me it was presumption on D's part; and when you Decatur boys told us yes, you were going to vote for Durfee, he had had the least chance, why I voted for Mc., the soldier's friend; and he is there, don't you forget it, to stay. But then although it was positively awful for us boys to support Joe Ray on the democratic ticket, it was all right for Milikin, for didn't we reward Jim by sending him as a delegate to the National Republican convention? We don't exactly understand the matter, unless as Jim Lake observed when Comrade Barnes was spoken of for office this fall, and the delegates all fixed for him, "H—, Barnes has no money; we want a man that has money." Milikin has got it and will spend it too, consequently the delegates had business that kept them away, and alternates were appointed to nominate Jim, and he got it. Oh yes, we will all support Jim. And then you know he has comrades H. M. Phil, Buck, Jack and Bill working for him, and that settles it.

Well, how about Keller?

Oh, we are solid for Keller; would have sooner voted for Capt. Grayson or some other good soldier, but as the boys you have sent out to talk to and with us say "there is a U. S. senator to be elected and the state to be redistricted," so we will be solid and don't you forget it.

Ain't all the boys going to stand together this fall as they did four years ago for Dick?

Well, no; the democratic soldiers all, or nearly all, voted for Dick, but after Dick got in he was like the others that get elected to office. It was the orders from the fellows that furnished the money, and as I want to furnish the officers, that the soldier vote must be divided; that it would not do to have them solid, as it disgraced their plans and Dick, Barnes, Cy, H. M. Phil, and some of the others who couldn't vote for Ray, being too good reps, thought so too and have pretty well succeeded. But still the most of the boys will vote for Peter the democratic Pearl.

A BAD COUGH.

Many people fancy that a hacking cough is an inseparable accompaniment of increasing age. Others go about coughing and snuffing, without much attempt to alleviate their troubles. This was the case with John A. Bush, the well-known Odd Fellow and manufacturer of regalia. He had an obstinate cough that kept him "laid up" half the time. He thought that perhaps it came in from his calling as painter, and he let it go. At last it became so painful that he was alarmed. He began to cough up mucus, streaked occasionally with blood.

There was a tightness across his chest that boded no good in the future. Mr. Bush took all the popular medicines of the day, with no avail. Finally a druggist told him that Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure was guaranteed to cure the worst cough or cold. By this time he had become convinced that nothing would do him any good. He was in despair, so that there was nothing in the nature of the faith cure to help the medicine, but to Mr. Bush's surprise he began to mend on taking it and by the time he had taken the second bottle he was a well man. His old hacking cough has left him, and Mr. Bush is restored to perfect health. He says, "You cannot say too much for Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure. It is the most wonderful medicine I ever tried." This is the general verdict. Mr. Bush is one of the best known citizens in Peoria, and a leading Odd Fellow in the state. He will confirm everything that we have here said. It contains no poison.

HERE WE ARE, CLEAR THE WAY.

WE ARE LOADED FOR BEAR.

DEAR FRIENDS:—We have been silent for several days, which brought a premature smile to the faces of our competitors. But they will know this morning that there was mischief brewing all the time. They will read over this list of prices and then go out and have a few disastrous rounds with the despair that will bug them closer and blacker than a shadow.

But friends their grief will be your joy. They will be sad unto jaundice because they know you will read of the bargains that are offered here—and that will be the end of their few-sales-and-big-profits jig.

Here is What WE Can do For You.

600 Pairs Ladies' Dongola Button shoes in Opera and Common Sense. Our former price has been $3.00; we are going to sell them at $2.00. Other dealers here can't buy them at what we are selling them for. If you don't get a pair you will regret it.

500 Pairs Ladies' Dongola Button shoe at $1.35; our price was $2.25. They will be sold at this great sale at the above price and they are dandies. Our competitors may howl at such a slaughter but we have the goods and are going to sell if prices will do it.

300 Men's Real Congress shoes all solid and are worth $2.00; considering the great advance in prices we are going to run them out at $1.35.

We have 150 Pairs Men's Calf Congress shoes hand welt and they are daisies and you can't approach them at near the price. We are going to sell at $2.50. Just think, of a Men's hand sewed shoe being sold at such a price.

If this does not satisfy you that we UNDERSELL any other house in the business come to our store and see the thousand other startling evidences that rest upon the shelves. The tariff may affect small concerns, but it stands out of the way for such a business as we do. Tariff or no tariff, we break the record every day in the matter of getting up bargains for our patrons.

ABEL'S CARPET STORE.

Hold it to the Light.

The man who tells you confidentially just what will cure your cold is prescribing Kemp's Balsam this year. In the past, colds have passed from trouble and trouble to the late rise in prices, we notify you that quotations will be as follows on the goods mentioned. Generally the introductory remark says the rise is due to the McKinley bill, and the quotations are always higher than the prices on the previous lists. The dealer sometimes takes advantage of the bill to raise prices unaffected by the new law, but the poor consumer suffers just the same.

A Crushed Foot. George Grobowski, the son of William Grobowski, suffered a painful accident Wednesday afternoon at the shoe factory, where he is employed to run the elevator. He got his foot caught between the elevator and the joist of the second floor, and had it wrenched and crushed quite badly. Dr. J. E. Eddy attended the injury. The boy will be laid up for a few weeks. He is about 14 years of age.

Ask Your Friends About It. Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottle 50c and $1 at all drug stores. Sample bottle free.

A famous Washington gambler, it is said will soon go to preaching. He would begin ten years ago, but he has only just now found cure for his cough. It is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Behold the world's rest and her tired inhabitants have passed from trouble and trouble, because the customary headache and neuralgia have been cured by Salvation Oil. Price 25 cents a bottle.

A Fire. A bad fire caused a fire yesterday morning at 5:07 Short street. The house was small one owned by A. Harpazite. The loss was under $100.

ONE KIND OF A UNION.

The Stationary Engineers Meet for Mutual Improvement.

The Stationary Engineers' association will meet every Monday night in room 24 of Haworth block in peculiar in its functions. Many people think of course that it is a labor union or something of that kind, and that it is an organization to keep up wages. That is not the fact. Wages, hours of labor, qualifications of a man to work with union men, and all such questions never come up in the meetings. They cannot come up, because the association is formed for a different purpose. That purpose is the education of the members in the care and running of steam engines and boilers. There are 17 members. There is an average attendance of 9 at every meeting. The sessions last about two hours and the topics discussed are all calculated to give information on the matters that will come up in the business of the members. If an engineer comes to a difficulty in his work, he speaks of it at the meeting, and asks all the questions about it that occur to him. Any one who knows answers the questions.

The association has a small library which is expected to be the nucleus of a large and valuable one. The books are upon subjects calculated to be interesting and beneficial to men in their business.

This is a kind of labor organization that should become more numerous. If all unions gave some time to increasing the proficiency of the members in their craft, the unions would become stronger, and the union credentials would be a most potent recommendation in a man's favor.

The Stationary Engineers association prepared an ordinance requiring the appointment of a committee or board of examiners, to see that all persons in the city in charge of engines and boilers of a certain class, should be licensed and properly qualified for their duties. The matter when presented to the council was by that body referred to a committee, and that was the last of it. The engineers say that this is a matter that has been taken up by smaller cities than Decatur. The state law expressly gives the city government power to pass ordinances governing the care of steam boilers. The union's recommendation should have had more attention paid it, but will not do anything more about it. One member said yesterday that they would let some disastrous explosion emphasize their statement that such legislation is needed.

North-east Decatur. Mrs. James Alsop has fully recovered from her sickness.

Frank Veach went to Harvel this afternoon for a few days hunt.

Mike Cain came in from Chicago last night, to the surprise of his parents.

As yet no tidings of the book register for the first district. We suspect foul play.

W. T. Dillehunt stopped his sale Tuesday, on account of the prices stock were going at.

J. R. Gile, of North Calhoun, now at the Springfield Washburn hospital, is reported some better.

Miss Alice Perry, of Platt county, visited her sister, Mrs. John Wheat, of East Edmond, for several days last week.

A section of the election law requires the board for the second meeting, in the city, to meet at 8 a. m., and continue until 9 p. m.

W. T. Dillehunt sold his new crop of corn, 13,000 bushels, to J. Renshaw, for 45 cents, 70 pounds to the bushel. Mr. Renshaw paying for the shelling.

Next Tuesday is the last opportunity for voters to register.

Richardson's pharmacy, corner Edmund and Calhoun streets. There will be a night session as well as day. Don't forget the time, Tuesday, Oct. 23.

Surprised. There was a pleasant surprise party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Condon Wednesday night. It was in celebration of the 27th birthday of Mr. Condon.

One feature that made the surprise more complete was the unexpected arrival from Chicago of Mr. Condon's brother and cousin. The company was a pleasant one for all. Danced was the diversion, and supper was served. Those present were Messrs. Fitzpatrick, Sterling, Loop, Street, Condon and Cane, with their wives, Misses Mary Murphy, Mary O'Connor, Mary Powers and Lathan Martin, Messrs. Dan Martin, George Landon, L. M. McCarthy, Oliver Dwyer, John Giffin, Dan Conroy, Henry McEvoy, Joe Denham, Thomas Roach and Michael Cane, Chicago.

POLICE BUSINESS BOOMING.

A Full Station House—Various Miscellaneous.

The Franklin street station house was full last night. The police had more cases than they have had in one day for a year. Both the levee district and the uptown officers had a taste of the rush.

Isaac Rogan, a young man of about 20 years, son of I. R. Rogan, the barber, was arrested last night by Officer Kirkbride on the charge of throwing a brick through a large plate glass window in the front of a saloon kept by William T. Harten at 619 North Water street. Rogan, who is a worthless sort of a fellow, went into the saloon to borrow a deck of cards, and while in there the window was put out. He went across the street to a brick lot and took a brick in his hand, and in a moment sent one of them through the window which is a very large one. He was in bed when the officer came to arrest him. He was taken to the calaboose and looked up to await trial to-day.

Officer C. H. Barrett arrested a plain drunk on North Water street yesterday evening, whose name was Barrett. He was put away for safe keeping.

A batch of three drunks were arrested yesterday evening by Officer John Williamson, at the southeast corner of Lincoln square. Elijah Mosser and another one whose name was unknown, were fighting, and a second nameless one was taken with them to the refrigerator.

The man popularly known as "Cabbage" Elliott was arrested last night on East Main street for drunkenness and disturbing the peace. He rested last night in the Franklin street bastille.

A son of Theodore H. Stines, who runs a green-house at 916 South Webster street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Barrett for throwing a stone through a neighbor's window.

Henry Etheridge was before Justice Stevens yesterday and pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and disorderly. He had chased his wife to a neighbor's the night before while in that condition. Justice Stevens fined him $3 and costs and ordered that he be released on his promise not to drink or frequent saloons for one year. The first time he breaks the promise he will be arrested on an execution. His friends and associates should help him to keep it.

HAPPENED NEAR HOME.

Home Corn.

The pack of the Illinois Canning company at Hoopston this year was very large. They raised 1,433 acres, the yield from which was one-third of all the corn packed west of the Allegheny mountains. The average run per day was 60,000 cans, or five car loads. The entire output was 200 car loads.

Sore Throat at Clinton.

Malignant sore throat seems on the point of causing a panic in Clinton. The cases are now and are by the good care of the doctors carefully and promptly isolated when discovered. The disease is not definitely diphtheria, but has strong diphtheric symptoms. W. Graham's little daughter is quite low with the trouble, but there is great hope of her recovery.

Church Burned.

The new Catholic Church at Mattoon, valued at $80,000 and still incomplete, was gutted by fire of unknown origin Wednesday evening. The loss is estimated at $25,000, partially covered by insurance. Father James Crow, a young priest well known in Decatur, is the rector there.

Corner Stone Laid.

The corner stone of the Effingham college was laid Wednesday with impressive ceremonies by the Masonic fraternity. Acting Grand Master Owen Scott, of Bloomington, officiating. State Superintendent Edwards delivered the address, which was listened by nearly the whole population of the city. The building will cost $20,000 and will be opened for students next year.

The Play.

Rose Coghan will play "Peg Woffington" here next Tuesday night. She gives a fine conception of the character that has been drawn in Charles Reade's novel, "Masks and Faces. The incidents in Margaret Woffington's career have also been made the subject of a comedy by Tom Taylor, which was adapted by Boucicault under the same title as Reade's and produced at Burton's Chambers Street Theater in 1855.

Miss Coghan uses a version of the play mainly altered by herself, and the story is laid in four acts. Some interesting facts in regard to Peg's history are found in "Dorand's Annals of the State." Never were the "unexpectations" of life so well illustrated as in the career of this great actress and that of her sister Mary. She and her sister were born in Dublin. The father was a bricklayer and married the mother when she was equally hard working as a laundress. Peggy commenced as a pupil of a rope dancer named Mme. Violante, from whom she learned to perform little tricks, to speak French thoroughly and acquired graces of person, style and carriage, by which she gained fortune and fame. During her career she was married. Her sister became the bride of Captain Cholmondeley, nephew of the Earl of Walpole. Margaret Woffington was the most beautiful and least vain woman of her day, and captured all hearts, from the humblest auditor that listened to her in the theater, to the throne monarch. As an actress she is well known as Nellie Gwynne, the favorite of the merry monarch, Charles II.

A Fingman Needed.

An old countryman drove leisurely on the crossing of the Illinois street yesterday morning at William street just in front of an engine that was going about 20 miles an hour. He was oblivious of danger, and would have had no further use for wagon and horses, and all else connected with this world if a coal hauler at a car near by had not yelled to him. As it was he got off with about six inches between him and death. That is one of the most dangerous crossings in the city. Three railroads use the tracks there. Scarcely a minute passes that one does not have its engine going one way or another. Freight cars are always standing close up to the wagon crossing, a shed obstructs a view on one side, so that it is impossible to tell whether the way is clear till the team is on the main track. People engaged near that crossing say that hardly a day goes by without an escape from death as close as that of the old farmer yesterday.

President Ashley.

President Ashley, Vice President J. F. Howe, General Manager C. M. Hays and other officials of the Wabash passed through here yesterday afternoon on a special train. The two officials named last went to Toledo to meet President Ashley, who is on his annual tour of inspection. He is now going over the eastern division of the road and will make a stop over the western. Vice President Ashley will probably remain in St. Louis until Monday.

Resolutions. HALL OF CELESTIAL LODGE, No. 186, I. O. O. F., DECATUR, ILL., OCT. 20, 1896.

Whereas, Relentless death has sought out and extinguished the life of our beloved brother, Joseph T. Gates, P. G. of this lodge, who has been a member for 23 years; be it therefore

Resolved, That in this transition from life to death by Brother Gates this lodge has sustained an irreparable loss, in which its members individually and as a body are profoundly grieved and join with his family in paying the last tribute of reverence to one whose memory will ever be fondly cherished; and

Resolved, That his family is deprived forever of the presence, love and tender regard, counsel and wisdom of husband and father, the immediate community where he resided an honored, conscientious and valued citizen in whose life was combined those many traits characteristic of true Odd Fellowship—Friendship, Love and Truth—friendship for all who were worthy, love, tender and affectionate for all those allied by kindred and association, truthful in all his relations in life; the world, by the one swift, inexorable stroke of death that has blotted out of life one who died as he has lived, a Christian man, ever ready for the journey into the unknown future, his life on earth having been lived as the embodiment of the Golden Rule, without fear, but with an ever abiding faith of happiness forever that awaited him beyond the grave.

Resolved, That the ranks of Celestial lodge be and are hereby extended to Orlando lodge No. 20, I. O. O. F., of Orlando, Fla., for its brotherly and fraternal courtesy during his sickness and demise.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother under seal of this lodge and that copies be furnished the city press for publication, and a copy be forwarded to Orlando lodge, No. 20, of Orlando, Fla.

Geo. W. PATTERSON, JAMES L. PEARCE, I. W. ERIKSON, Committee.

Deaths—Freemont. Chauncey H. Doetz and Miss Lena A. Freemont were married last evening by Rev. G. E. Serlinger, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freemont, at 24 South Main street. The relatives of the contracting parties were the only ones who were present. Many useful and handsome presents were received. For a few weeks Mr. and Mrs. Doetz will be at home to their friends at the home of C. H. Doetz, 1600 North Water street, until the new residence is finished which the groom is erecting on North Broadway.

Railroads Ruined. The railroads have about all the traffic they can take care of these days. But little grain is moving, yet it is impossible almost to get a car for anything. The rush seems to have been caused by general business. One Decatur firm has been trying ineffectually for five weeks to get a car load of coke from Pennsylvania.

To The Readers And Especially the LADY :-: READERS OF THE REVIEW.

The manufacturers of "THERPUNE" Baking Powder in asking their help to the public desire to frankly state a few important facts:

First—This powder has been adopted and endorsed by the Wholesale Grocers' National association as the best pure cream of tartar Baking Powder made.

Second—We make no extravagant claims or assertions; the quality of the powder is expressed by the name.

Third—We have no words of condemnation for other powders; there are some powders in the market which are very good, there are far more that are poisonous; we know ours to be pure and of the highest class.

Fourth—Realizing that results alone can prove the merit of any article, we believe that "THERPUNE" Baking Powder, which is an advancement in modern discovery and science, will furnish results for the household never before accomplished, thus proving helpful to the health and "popular" with the ladies. We respectfully request for this powder a careful trial and are confident that it will obtain precedence over all others in the homes of the people.
